Frequently Asked Questions:

What can I do to enhance my resume if I didn’t have an internship last summer? Get involved with clubs, take leadership positions, join relevant groups to learn about the industry of interest, shadow someone in the industry, volunteer, etc. Bank of America Merrill Lynch values diversity of employees – this includes diversity of thought and experience – we encourage diverse backgrounds in our interns.

What soft skills does BofAML look for in an intern candidate? Clear communication, composure, personable, team player – we want someone who we know is going to go above and beyond, and work well with the team to ensure success for the firm.

How do the application and assessment work? In order for an application to be complete, all candidates must complete the assessment. The assessment will include 3 sections of 15 questions each and is fully integrated into our application system. All three sections of the assessment must be finished in order for application to be complete.

How can candidates prepare? The assessment will evaluate students based on the bank’s core values. Candidates can prepare by doing due diligence on the firm to learn more about these values and the key principles that drive business at Bank of America Merrill Lynch. Additional information about the assessment can be found on our campus website.

Who will be using video interviews? All of our businesses will be leveraging one-way video interviews for first round interviews.

How can students prepare? Practice, practice, practice! There will be a test question to practice as many times as needed to ensure lighting, tone of voice, and confidence are all ready to go. Students will have 30 seconds from hearing/seeing the interview question to prepare and get ready to respond. Best practices and video interviewing tips can be found on our campus website.

Do you have more questions? Send them to US_campus@bankofamerica.com and one of our recruiters will respond!
