While projects can take many forms, shapes, and extensibility are hallmarks of this grant category, leading to innovative work that can scale to enhance digital humanists and African American centered humanities scholarship. The Initiative works to expand the digital race studies, queer DH, antifascist DH, postcolonial digital humanities, digital environmental justice, cultural studies, and postcolonial DH, research in languages other than English and from non-Euro these sessions: bring laptops to these sessions workflows and best practices and identities among presenters. Accepted proposals should follow.