• The mid-term exam is an in-class exam that will be given on Wednesday, November 1, 2017 in RAJ CONF from 10:10 to 11:00 am. The exam will last 50 minutes.

• It will be an honor code exam, which means that I will be not be present in the room during the time you take it. No materials will be permitted (notes, books, handouts, etc.).

• Tips: Study with your syllabus handy and be sure to browse the course web site (all class presentation are posted there).

• There will be two distinct parts to this exam. Time yourself accordingly.

  A. The first part (which counts for 25% of the grade) will be on Africa’s political geography and cultures (languages and ethnic groups).

  B. The second part (75%) will consist of a short essay that will connect THREE terms/names/concepts from the list below:

Rwandan Genocide
Personal Rule
Civil Society
Paul Collier
Coup d’état
Nationalism
M-B Umutesi
Independence
Paul Kagame
FNLA (Angola)
Authoritarianism
Chinua Achebe
Afrocracy
Stedman and Lyons
Colonialism
Concentration of state power
Aba Women’s War
Atlantic Slave Trade
Félix Houphouët-Boigny
Colonial borders
Decolonization
Hutu
Fantu Cheru
Neo-colonialism
Paul Collier
Constitution of the Mali Empire
Kwame Nkrumah
Nationalism

Tutsi
Tribalism
Single Party Rule
Democratization
Laurent Gbagbo
Mobutu Sese Seko
Michael Chege
Big man rule
MPLA (Angola)
Jean-Bédel Bokassa
Nation-State
Aimé Césaire
African socialism
Neo-patrimonialism
Multi-ethnic nations
Biafra War
Philibert Tsiranana
Fantu Cheru
Crisis of the African State
Clientelism
African conflicts
Berlin Conference (1884-1885)
Indirect rule
Jacqueline Klopp
Liberal Democracy
Ivoirité
Tenets of Liberal Democracy