Middlebury College
Costume Loan & Rental Policies

Middlebury College Costume Shop, Department of Theatre, owns an enormous costume collection that it makes available to the Middlebury College community and the greater theater world. The purpose of making the collection available for loan and rental is to promote stage costume use in theatrical productions.

Please note that our policies and procedures have been carefully considered and are intended to prolong the life of our collection. The rental rates are lower than industry standard and represent the cost of upkeep and repair, not replacement. Availability of garments for loan or rental are subject to the rules below.
