

Mission
To provide continuing health-related education opportunities to the Monterey Bay Area made possible by the following organizations:

Monterey County Health Department

MONTEREY INSTITUTE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDIES
An affiliate of Middlebury College

To inquire about tax-deductible individual sponsorship of this or future events, please contact the Consortium at (831)755-4586

The Monterey County Health Education Consortium
Presents

Keeping the Salad Bowl Safe: How We Prevent and Investigate Foodborne-related Illnesses

Featured Talks:

Foodborne Illness: From Plate to Population

Lisa B. Hernandez, MD, MPH
Deputy Health Officer
Monterey County Health Department

Good Agricultural Processes

Tom Mack
Vice President
Technical Services
Dole Fresh Vegetables, Inc.

Agroterrorism, Post-harvest Food Sabotage, and Emergency Preparedness

Raymond A. Zilinskas, Ph.D.
Senior Scientist
James Martin Center for Nonproliferation Studies
Monterey Institute of International Studies

Program Objectives:

As a result of attending this program, participants should be able to:

- Identify the diagnostic and treatment strategies for foodborne illness
- Understand the outbreak investigation process
- Identify recent developments for food safety improvements in relation to foodborne illness
- Identify the mechanisms by which food safety can be compromised through terrorist activities

When:

Thursday, January 22nd, 2009

Registration begins at 5:30 pm

Speakers begin at 6:30 pm

(A light dinner will be provided before speakers)

Where (NOTE NEW VENUE):

Salinas Valley Memorial Hospital
Downing Resource Center

Basement Rooms A - C

450 East Romie Lane

(Parking: complimentary valet or Heart Center parking lot)

Intended Audience:

This seminar is designed for physicians, nurses and health professionals who desire more information about foodborne illness and food safety issues.

RSVP to Lin McCray at (831)755-4739 or mccrayl@co.monterey.ca.us no later than January 8th, 2008.

The presentational method for this activity will be Lecture and Q&A period, and will be evaluated by each participant at the conclusion of the activity.

Salinas Valley Memorial Healthcare (SVMH) System is accredited by the Institute for Medical Quality/California Medical Association (IMQ/CMA) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. SVMH takes responsibility for the content, quality and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

SVMH designates this educational activity for a maximum of 2.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. This credit may also be applied to the CMA Certification in Continuing Medical Education.

~ In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), please call (831) 755-4383 should you require special assistance ~